Flyer is realising the breeding goal of Stoeterij Vissers. The grey mare by Numero Uno was born in Wim Vissers stable and now throws high eyes in the young horses categories under the Limburg rider Annemarie Poels. The fact that sire Numero Uno is wearing the predicate already says enough. He is the supplier of many international jumping horses. Some examples of this are Tamino (Marc Houtzager) and Tyson (Leon Thijssen).

Dam Kaprice III is a daughter of the very successful Holsteiner stallion Corofino I. She gave many descendants. Her most famous son is the gelding Carefino. In 2008, Carefino was a finalist in the Belgian Championships for four-year-olds. The following year he became a reserve champion at the five-year-old to become champion in 2010. He was amongst others ridden by Thomas Ehning and David Will.

This tribe also brought the 1.60m horse Optik I. Together with rider Evelina Tovek, the duo became second at the Grand Prix in Bonheiden in 2003. But also Andre Thieme rides a tophorse from this Holsteiner tribe. The horse Conthendrix is a Contendro I, born in 2004, and he won the Nations Cup in Falsterbo in 2014.

Flyer is owned by Annemarie Poels, Ad Roefs and Ad van den Tillaart.
