This grey Holstein mare is currently being ridden by the German rider Theresa Dietz. The duo became fifth during the Salut Festival in Aachen riding the Preis der Braunschweiger Löwen Classics in November 2014.

Querida de Reve has a very special sire, namely Quidam de Revel. A huge number of his offspring is very successful in international sports and has large value in breeding. With Hervé Godignon, Quidam de Revel won team bronze and an individual fourth place at the Olympic Games in Barcelona in 1992. After that, the stallion was sold to Denmark where he was successful with Young Rider Charlotte Velin. Quidam de Revel is the first warmblood sire of which a clone was born, his name is Paris-Texas.

The damline of Querida de Reve (bloodline number 579) gave many famous sport horses like the 1.60 jumpers Solana (by Carbano) with the Russian Natalia Simonia, Cassius (by Calando I) and also Leonid's Jumper (by Leonid) who was Holstein and Hannover approved.
